

Welcome to PROKoZ...

PROKoZ is dedicated to deliver solutions to Turf and Ornamental end-users, supplier partners, and distributors across the country. PROKoZ is an innovative distributor association that combines consolidated purchasing and national distribution with regional expertise and hands-on customer service.

End users trust PROKoZ distributors to deliver exceptional customer service, strong knowledge of local growing conditions and product applications, and competitive pricing on national and PROKoZ branded products.

Supply Partners rely on PROKoZ as a national distribution and marketing network able to efficiently deliver product to a broad base of Turf and Ornamental end users.

Turf and Ornamental Independent Distributors turn to PROKoZ to achieve consolidated purchasing and to have access to PROKoZ branded products while maintaining independent, locally-owned operational structures.

Jointly, PROKoZ distributors serve the turf and ornamental chemical market with over 500 sales reps, nearly four million square feet of warehouse space, and consolidated purchasing among the largest in the T&O distribution network.
